

Work From Home Policy

Work From Home Policy

General Overview:

This Work From Home (WFH) Policy outlines the guidelines under which employees may work remotely either partially or fully. The aim is to provide flexibility while maintaining productivity, accountability, and data security.

Eligibility:

- Employees who have completed a minimum of 3 months of continuous service with the company are eligible.
- The employee's role must be suitable for remote work, based on manager and HR assessment.
- Performance and disciplinary records must be satisfactory.

Application and Approval:

- WFH must be requested via the HR portal and approved by the reporting manager.
- Regular WFH (e.g., 2-3 days/week) requires documented approval.
- Emergency or ad-hoc WFH may be approved at the discretion of the manager.

Duration and Frequency:

- Eligible employees may work remotely up to 3 days per week.
- Fully remote roles must be explicitly stated in the offer letter or approved by the HR Director.
- Managers may revise WFH frequency based on business needs.

Work Expectations:

- Employees must be available online between 9:30 AM and 6:30 PM.
- Mandatory participation in team meetings, stand-ups, and one-on-ones.
- Daily task updates must be submitted through the internal task tracker or email.

Infrastructure and Support:

- The company may provide laptops and official software licenses.
- Internet expenses up to Rs. 1,000/month are reimbursable on submission of bills.
- Employees are responsible for maintaining a safe and professional work environment at home.

Security and Confidentiality:

- Employees must use only company-approved devices and VPNs.
- Data must be stored on company cloud or servers no local storage of sensitive data.
- Sharing screens or data in public spaces is strictly prohibited.

Performance Monitoring:

- Performance will be reviewed weekly and compared with in-office benchmarks.
- Continued WFH access depends on sustained productivity and collaboration.

Exceptions and Discretion:

- WFH during medical emergencies, natural calamities, or transport strikes may be granted on a case-by-case basis.
- The company reserves the right to modify or revoke WFH privileges at any time.

Policy Review:

This policy will be reviewed bi-annually and updated based on organizational needs and technological advancements.

Signed,

HR Department
